YELLOW FEVER.

Florida's Governor Appeals to the Government

TO ASSIST IN STAMPING OUT THE REMAINING GERMS.

Mr. Edmunds Offers a Resolution Concerning Central America Canals—A War Vessel Likely to Be Sent to the Isthmus to Protect Our Interests—Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Governor Perry, of Florida, under date of December 13, writes to Surgeon General Hamilton, of the marine hospital service, as follows:

"Assuring you of my grateful appreciation of the consideration which the president, the treasury, and, in fact, every department of the government, has shown to Florida in her troubles from the yellow fever scourge, and especially of my appreciation of your own labors in behalf of our people and your earnest efforts to thoroughly dislodge Jacksonville, I beg also to ask your attention to the other places in which there has been yellow fever during this season, to urge that under your supervision, all infection may, if possible, be eradicated so as to remove danger of the disease breaking out next summer. I shall feel greatly relieved if I know that your department is giving its attention to every place in which there is a suspicion of infection, and trust that you will continue your good work until you are satisfied that no germs of the disease are left in the state."

Edmunds' Resolutions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Mr. Edmunds offered in the senate and had referred to the committee on foreign relations:

"RESOLVED, That the government of the United States will look with grave concern and disapproval upon any connection of any European government with the construction or control of any ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien or across Central America; and must regard any such connection or control as injurious to the just rights and interests of the United States and a menace to their welfare.

"RESOLVED, That the president of the United States be requested to communicate the expression of the views of congress to the governments of the countries of Europe."

The Holiday Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Republican senators held a caucus to make an effort to come to some understanding about an adjournment for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Morrill and Mr. Sherman were instructed by the caucus to confer with the Democratic members of the senate, and to make a proposition that an adjournment be had from Saturday next to January 3, with the understanding that night sessions would be held in the future. After the adjournment of the caucus the Republican conference had a meeting with Mr. Vest and Mr. Harris, representing the Democrats, but no agreement was reached.

Special Delivery Letters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The house committee on postoffices and post roads agreed to report favorably a bill to amend the postal laws of the United States, in reference to letters bearing special delivery stamps. The bill provides that the omission by the sender to place the lawful postage upon a letter bearing special delivery stamp and otherwise entitled to immediate delivery shall not hinder or delay the transmission and delivery thereof, but such lawful postage shall be collected upon its delivery in the manner now provided by law, for the collection of deficient postage resulting from the overweight of letters.

Labor Trouble Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Representative Tillman, of South Carolina, who is chairman of the special committee appointed last session to make an investigation of the Reading railroad strikes, states that his report on the subject will hardly be ready until the Christmas holidays. A great mass of testimony was taken in this city and elsewhere, and Mr. Tillman promises that his report will contain some practical suggestions and will also be interesting reading. There is a diversity of opinion among the members of the committee on the subject, and there may be more than one report submitted to the house.

Consulting the President-Elect.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Mr. Clapp, of the inaugural executive committee, said that Mr. Britton went to Indianapolis because he was asked to go by Senator Quay. This invitation, Mr. Clapp understood, was due in part to a desire for Mr. Britton's companionship, and in part to the fact that it was desirable that the president-elect should have some communication with the chairman of the inaugural committee, and that his wishes should be regarded in the arrangements made.

New Move Toward Woman Suffrage.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A new movement toward woman suffrage was begun in the senate Tuesday. Senator Dawes introduced a bill to remove the political disabilities of Harriet H. Robinson, of Middlesex county, Massachusetts, and to declare her a citizen of the United States, with all the rights and powers of citizenship, including the privilege of voting and being voted for. Referred.

Naval Vessel in Demand.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—It was said at the navy department Tuesday afternoon that a naval vessel will probably be sent to Colon to protect American interests in Panama, but that steps have not yet been taken in that direction. It is customary to station a vessel in that neighborhood during the winter season. Nothing is known of any troubles on the isthmus.

Another Victory to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Cull has presented to the senate bill framed according to the ideas of the Jacksonville auxiliary sanitary association providing for the appointment of a special sanitary inspector from the retired list of the army, to receive $2,500 a year in addition to his pay as a retired officer and to be attached to the Marine hospital bureau.

POWDERLY DENIES IT.

He Says He Never Favored Catholics—He Thinks He Earns His Salary.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—General Master Workman Powderly came to town Tuesday night to talk to railroad men and to get a whack at the Knights of Labor, who have been denouncing him as a traitor to organized labor and as a tool of the Catholic hierarchy. He spoke at Cooper Union, and over two thousand members of District Assembly No. 233 listened.

"When I selected the eight names in Indianapolis for four members of the general executive board to be chosen from," said he, "I never gave the question of whether they were Protestants, Catholics, Turks or infidels thought. The charge that I picked out Catholics is distasteful. I never gave to any priest secrets of the order. I never was asked to. All I did was to put the order in its true light. A few months ago we were connected in the public with Anarchy and I placed the order right before the people in that respect.

"I have made manhood, not faith, the test of my appointments. A 'stick-to-your-organization' man is always treated with more respect by his employer when he has an organization back of him than when he stands alone. The only reason why the name of T. V. Powderly is known from one end of the country to the other is because he has the Knights of Labor back of him. If I had not I would not be noticed on all sides."

Powderly then lashed T. B. Barry, but did not mention him by name. He said that "since this man has left the order his local assembly at East Saginaw had written that it would come back into the order. The local had been killed by this man, who wrote on its walls, 'God bless the man who invented dynamite.'

"The only unifiers who had left the order were the officers of District No. 135."

Later in his speech he said: "We don't let Chinamen in. Here are Americans, Irish and Germans whom we must educate, and, until they are educated, we must not load our ship down with Chinamen." He said he earned every dollar of his salary, and thanked no one for it. The general executive board was preparing a bill to hold employers liable for accidents of employees, and he wanted the members of the order to work for its passage in every state.

A BRAVE FIREMAN.

With a Broken Ankle He Runs Himself Half a Mile to Plug a Train.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Dec. 20.—A second attempt to wreck the Texas express train on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad was made at 4 o'clock this morning at Lyman Station, four miles east of this city. The switch bolts were removed, the rails spread to throw the train over an embankment, but the switch target was left in proper position.

Fortunately for the two hundred people on the train a wild engine was running ahead, and this plunged through the switch at a forty-mile speed. The engine was demolished and the rails torn up for a quarter of a mile.

The fireman, with a broken ankle, dragged himself back for more than a mile and flagged the train, saving it from destruction. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the diabolical deed, but they are evidently the same who attempted to wreck the St. Louis train a few days ago.

LEGITIME'S MEN-OF-WAR

Bombard the Town of Cape Haytian—Several Men Killed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Passengers by the steamer Saginaw from Hayti bring news of the bombardment of Cape Haytian, on December 5, by four of Legitime's men-of-war.

The foreign consuls were given thirty-six hours to leave, and most of the people fled to the hills. The town was demolished, and at least a dozen sick, and others who could not get away, were killed.

The Haytian Republic was to sail Tuesday in charge of an American crew, for delivery at any port the government may designate.

Mrs. Snoots Acquitted.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Dec. 20.—At 4 p. m. Tuesday Mrs. Snoots heard the ringing of the court house bell that announced that the jury had arrived at a verdict in her case. She was brought into court. The verdict was "not guilty."

She heard it stolidly, and never moved a muscle of her face when her lawyers shook hands with and congratulated her. On demand of Prosecutor Winn, she was remanded to the custody of the sheriff to await trial for the murder of her other two children. As this, the strangest case, has failed, it is not likely the state will succeed with the others. The jury was out one hour and ten minutes.

Supposed Dead Man Comes to Life.

STILLWATER, Minn., Dec. 20.—Bert Whitmore, formerly an employee on the Omaha road, and a resident of this city, a few years since, was sick with typhoid fever, followed by inflammation of the bowels, and, to all appearances, died. After he was laid out a barber was sent for to shave him. As he was being shaved, Whitmore raised up and insisted that he was not dead. The astonishment of the barber was only equaled by the joy of the friends of the supposed dead man. He will fully recover.

The Scale Ready to Sign.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 20.—The scale of wages for 1889 of the American Flint Glassworkers' union is ready for presentation to the manufacturers' committee. With some modification in the classification the new scale is the same as for 1888. It is thought the manufacturers will sign it. The tariff committee of the glass works will shortly visit Washington in behalf of tariff revision. The workers have unearthened some startling information concerning tariff measures.

Asking Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The speaker to-day laid before the house a letter from the secretary of war, asking for an appropriation of $498,631 for various arsenals and other buildings. Among the items is $400,000 for a state or territorial house for disabled soldiers and sailors, and $25,514 for the Watervliet arsenal at West Troy, N. Y.

Another Victory to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Cull has presented to the senate bill framed according to the ideas of the Jacksonville auxiliary sanitary association providing for the appointment of a special sanitary inspector from the retired list of the army, to receive $2,500 a year in addition to his pay as a retired officer and to be attached to the Marine hospital bureau.

Another Victory to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—According to the latest advice the revolution in Bolivia has been suppressed. President Arce arrived at La Paz October 21 with an army, and he had a cordial reception. Subsequently the extra troops raised to suppress the revolution were disbanded.

Another Victory to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The United States steamer Despatch, which has been anchored in the Delaware, near Cramp's ship yard for some time, was blown aground by

IN A BLIZZARD.

Twelve Lives Believed to Have Been Lost on the St. Lawrence

BY THE BREAKING UP OF THE ICE WHICH WAS NOT YET SOLID.

Two Brothers Narrowly Escape a Sad Fate—Floods Do Considerable Damage to Railroads in Pennsylvania—Great Devastation in Virginia—Other Weather News.

MONTRAL, Dec. 20.—Tuesday evening a story came from Boucherville, a village on the river a few miles below here, that on Monday afternoon six farmers named Vian, La Flammé, Michaud, Naud, Piché and Nudel started to come here on the new ice with teams, loaded with Christmas products. Vian and La Flammé were accompanied by their wives, and each of the other four had a son with him.

Shortly after they left the blizzard began, and, as night fell, the ice began to break up. Nothing could be seen of the party from the shore, but the story is that during the night people at various points on the river heard cries for help coming out of the darkness. No help could be rendered and when morning came nothing could be seen of the party.

As the river is now open between Montreal and Boucherville, it is supposed that all were drowned.

Two brothers, Charles and Andrew Wall, arrived Tuesday at Carillon in an almost dying condition. While crossing the St. Lawrence river from Point Fortune they were caught in the blizzard; the ice broke under them, their sleigh and horses were swept away, and they spent the night on an ice floe, from which they were rescued in a boat in the morning. The younger man was rendered almost insane by his sufferings.

At the city hall tower the wind gauge was blown away Tuesday night. At Magill universe gusts of wind sixty miles an hour were registered. Among the accidents was the fall of a large chimney of Roger & King's foundry. It fell through the roof of the basement, breaking the central shaft of the works and carrying with it enormous piles of brick and mortar. The foundry gives employment to 150 men. That the accident occurred before work had commenced for the day is very fortunate.

Bridge Washed Away—Three Drowned.

CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 20.—This forenoon the middle bridge spanning the Merrimac river at Hocksett, N. H., used by the Suncook branch of the Concord railroad, and which was undergoing repairs, was overthrown by its supports being carried away by the rough water, and was precipitated over the falls, entailing with it nine of the eleven men who were working on it.

Three men were drowned. The remaining six were rescued in an injured condition, but none hurt fatally. The killed are: Silas Codde, aged thirty-five, of Hocksett, master bridge builder Patterson, and two stone masons who belonged in Nashua. N. J. Blutz, a Western Union lineman, belonging in northern New York, who was on the bridge, went through the falls and was taken out in an exhausted condition and was bruised about the legs. The bodies of the drowned men have not been recovered.

In Virginia.

PETERSBURG, Va., Dec. 20.—Passengers arriving here on the line of the Norfolk & Western railroad report a terrific storm east of this city Tuesday night. The wind was so violent that trees were uprooted and houses were wrecked. The headlight on the locomotive was broken by the train running into trees blown across the track. The gale in this city was very violent, but little damage is reported except to telegraph wires, so that communication with the north is badly interrupted.

At Emporia, in Greenville county, a thriving town, nearly every building in the town was unroofed. The storm was very severe along the line of the Atlantic & Danville railroad. Near Savage station a locomotive and two freight cars were overturned. In Prince George county dwellings were shaken so badly that the frightened inmates sought safety in their cellars.

The Lackawanna Flood.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 20.—High water has flooded the Lackawanna river to overflow during the night, flooding hundreds of houses on Scranton, Danwood and Providence flats, carrying away barns and outbuildings, and causing great damage. People were forced to leave their homes in many cases by boats.

At Pleasant Valley a portion of the Lehigh railroad track was carried away, and in this city more than a mile of the Jersey Central track was torn away, while a part of the Delaware & Hudson suffered a similar loss. The total damage will reach many thousand dollars.

On the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—The recent storm along the coast from Cape Mendocino to Cape Flattery is reported by captains of coasters as terrific. Capt. Salmon, of the Costa Rica, from Hawaiian ports, had his arm broken by being thrown from the bridge to the deck by a heavy sea. Several colliers from northern ports came in Tuesday night a week overdue, and all report severe weather. It is feared that some of the heavily laden coal vessels from Puget sound did not weather the storm. Several of them are now long overdue.

The Heaviest Rain in Years.

NORWICH, Conn., Dec. 20.—Moundy's rain was the heaviest known here in years, the water works register marking a fall of 3.10 inches. The swamps and streams were full, and the rain caused a great rise in the river. The south end of central wharf was overflowed. All of the cellars on the Shetucket river were flooded, as were the cellars of many stores on the square. Along the stream the flats were overflowed, and many mills were compelled to shut down Tuesday.

Asking Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The speaker to-day laid before the house a letter from the secretary of war, asking for an appropriation of $498,631 for various arsenals and other buildings. Among the items is $400,000 for a state or territorial house for disabled soldiers and sailors, and $25,514 for the Watervliet arsenal at West Troy, N. Y.

Another Victory to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—According to the latest advice the revolution in Bolivia has been suppressed. President Arce arrived at La Paz October 21 with an army, and he had a cordial reception. Subsequently the extra troops raised to suppress the revolution were disbanded.

Another Victory to U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The United States steamer Despatch, which has been anchored in the Delaware, near Cramp's ship yard for some time, was blown aground by the high wind of Tuesday morning, and four tugs were unsuccessful in their efforts to get the vessel off during the day. Another effort will be made. It is not thought that any serious damage will result from the grounding of the steamer.

Schooner Capsized—Crew Drowned.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 20.—During the heavy squall last night the oyster schooner Charles Owen of Portsmouth, Va., capsized in the James river, off White Shoal light-house, and Capt. Henry Beaman and the cook, a colored boy named Riley, were drowned.

The Delaware River.

ASTON, Pa., Dec. 20.—The Delaware river began rising Tuesday afternoon, and reached twenty feet above low water mark. Such a freshet is very unusual at this season. Several mills are unable to run and many out-houses are flooded.

POOR PROSPECTS OF PEACE.

Armed White Men Gathering at Wahala to Pursue the Negroes.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20.—A special from Wahala, Miss., says that two whites are dead and two others will die as a result of the riot last Sunday night. The militia has not been ordered out.

M. H. Manry was buried here Tuesday evening. The funeral was attended by about twenty-five stern-looking men, who rode into town at noon, having assembled from all parts of the surrounding country. They camped Tuesday night among the hills and searched all this morning for the negroes, but without success.

They stacked their guns in a vacant lot near the grave, and when the last sad rite had been performed for their former comrade, they mounted their horses and rode off to where it was said the negroes were hiding among the hills, swearing vengeance upon the murderers.

THURSDAY EVE., DEC. 20, 1888.

The West Union Scion says without her pensions Adams County would be bankrupt. The county has 635 pensioners who draw on an average $10 per month, or $30 per quarter. The total amount brought into the county by these pensioners every quarter is $20,550, or $82,200 a year. One in every forty of her citizens is a pensioner.

The editor of the BULLETIN should read the political history of his country. The law for the recovery of unearned public lands from railroad corporations was prepared by a Republican Congressman, passed by a Republican Congress and approved by a Republican President.—Maysville Republican.

Admitting that the law referred to was "prepared by a Republican Congressman, passed by a Republican Congressman and approved by a Republican President," will the editor of the Republican please explain why his party was so lax in enforcing it?

Passing a law and enforcing it are two entirely different things.

Our cotemporary knows very well that Democrats have been more vigilant than his party in restoring to the public domain these lands voted away by Republicans to railroad corporations and syndicates. We repeat about 80,000,000 acres have been thus restored during the present administration. The records show it.

The official count of the recent vote in New York shows conclusively that the Empire State is still Democratic. Following are the Democratic pluralities: Plurality in Congressional districts, 10,718; plurality for Governor Hill, 19,151; plurality for Lieutenant-Governor Jones, 22,234; plurality for Judge Gray, 8,425.

"There can be but one fair interpretation of these results," says the World. "They signify the endorsement by the Empire State, the pivotal State, the greatest manufacturing and commercial State, of the Democratic principles and policy.

"Had Governor Hill alone been re-elected it might have been said that 'trading' did it. But when both the other State candidates were chosen—one of them by a larger plurality than the Governor's and the other to a judicial office—such an explanation is obviously unsound and unjust. When, in addition to this, the vote for Representatives in Congress shows a Democratic plurality of over 10,000—giving to each party the benefit of its vote on other candidates in districts where no contest was made—the demonstration was complete.

"New York is still a Democratic State. It was lost to the party on the Presidential vote through the unacceptableness of the Democratic candidate for President to a portion of the Democratic voters."

A First Class Performance.

George Wilson's Minstrels appeared at Lexington a month or so ago and the Daily Leader spoke in highly complimentary terms of them. It said:

Only fourteen hundred people attended the first minstrel performance of the season at the theater last night. The a. r. o. card was visible long before the curtain arose, and many returned home on account of not securing seats.

George Wilson now has a fine company, far superior to the one he brought here for his second appearance last season. The Monte Cristo first part was new, novel and beautiful, and the elegant setting was due to the good taste of Mr. John Uttinger, the hustling stage manager of the house. The instrumental music of the company is under the direction of Mr. W. W. Barbour, formerly of Maysville, Ky., and of the old Barbour Bro.'s Minstrels, one of the best that was ever organized. Both the vocal and instrumental music were fine, the former being by one of the best quartettes that has been heard here in a long while.

The comic songs were all new, and only a few chestnuts for gags were thrown out. Duvall, the wonder, is well named. He is one of the finest contortionists now before the public. The songs and dances, clogs, statuary, and, in fact, the entire act was first-class. Swift and Chase, in their comical music act, set the house wild, while Powell, the neophyte genius, baffled the audience with his wonderful performance. George Wilson was, of course, exquisitely funny, as he always is, and kept the large audience in a constant roar who never in sight.

These minstrels will appear here to-night. Secure reserved seat tickets at Taylor's.

Turnpike Companies.

Judge Coons requests us to call attention to an act, passed by the last Legislature, requiring all turnpike companies in Mason County, in which the State or the county own stock, to hold regular annual elections for offices, and to report same to the County Court. A failure to comply with this law subjects the negligent company to a fine of $25 a day for every day that passes after that on which the election should by law be held.

TAXING WHISKY.

The Court of Appeals Renders an Important Decision on the Question.

The Court of Appeals Tuesday decided a very important matter relating to the question of the right of a city to tax whisky stored in a bonded warehouse.

The city of Frankfort instituted the suit against W. A. Gaines & Co. for city tax on nearly 30,000 barrels of whisky, and Gaines & Co. replied that they paid a city license of $250 in lieu of other taxes, and that even if subject to other taxation, nearly all the whisky belonged to non-residents.

Judge Lewis, in the opinion of the Appellate Court, holds substantially that, whilst in accordance with the city charter Gaines & Co. are subject to other city taxation than the license for whisky actually belonging to them, still it is not just that they should pay the city taxes on whisky owned by non-residents. Gaines & Co. admitted to the ownership of between four and five thousand barrels at the time of the suit.

The decision, though having reference only to the suit of Gaines & Co., of course covers the question of city taxation on whisky owned by non-residents. It is thought it will cause other cities now, notably Louisville, Owensboro and Lexington, to make a levy upon the distilleries, and whether belonging to residents or non-residents, seize upon the whisky and hold it until the city tax is paid.

Death of Mrs. Mary Given.

Mrs. Mary Given, whose serious illness was noticed a few days since, died yesterday morning at her home in Cincinnati. She had been in declining health for several months. The remains will be brought here to-night and taken to Bethel Church, Lewis County, for burial.

The deceased was about seventy-five years of age. She was born near Tollesboro, her maiden name being Rogers. She leaves six children, all grown—four sons and two daughters. The family formerly resided here, and their friends will regret to learn of Mrs. Given's death.

The answer was, that he could then make a living by begging. The request was refused."

ALL postoffices will be supplied with the new postal cards after the first of the year. The new cards differ from the old ones in that they furnish privacy to the correspondence contained upon them. It is very much like a double card of the present pattern. The back fold is split diagonally and opens square out. The four corners are folded and joined together in the center, when the card has been written upon, with a piece of gummed paper. The cards weigh less than half an ounce.

THE ARAB HORDES

The English Likely to Have a Battle With Them Soon.

INTEREST IN THE ATTEMPT TO CONQUER THEM INTENSIFIED.

The Pallent Officers See Visions of Promotion as a Result of the Campaign Which All Feel Is About to Begin—The Possessives Depressed More Than Ever—Lord Sackville's Future.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The imminence of a fight at Suakin within twenty-four hours at the furthest, in which British troops will be engaged, has greatly intensified the interest in the new attempt to conquer the Arab hordes in the Soudan, and reopens the trade whose discontinuance a few years ago wrought ruin to many British subjects in military circles.

The disbandment of the Honorable Artillery company, which ordinarily would afford material for many weeks' discussion and gossip, is almost forgotten in the speculation, prediction and expectation which the approaching warfare has begotten, and as a result of the long campaign, which all feel is about to begin, visions of preferment, promotion and even decoration as a reward for brave and meritorious deeds on the field of battle rise up before many officers who have for years patiently, but vainly waited for the recognition they are sure they deserve.

While this optimistic view of the situation is taken by the persons directly or indirectly interested in the prolongation and ultimate success of this second attempt to make a catapaw of Egypt for the benefit of England, the pessimists are more depressed than ever by the news that the presumed force of 2,000 Arabs besieging Suakin has suddenly swollen in numbers to 4,000 by the admission of the besieged party.

These persons, and they are numerous, are asking what is to become of Suakin garrison and its British auxiliaries in a battle with 4,000, and perhaps more, Arabs, if it was seriously thought that the original 2,000 were strong enough to repel an attack, and perhaps, to drive the attacking party back into the Red sea.

This, they argue, is the substance of the contention made by Lord Randolph Churchill and others, and in the battle which must be fought within a comparatively few hours they can see nothing but humiliation and disaster. To be sure, the fighting strength of the garrison has been somewhat increased beyond the original estimate, and this, too, at the instigation of Churchill, but the force of the enemy has been at least doubled.

If it should so happen that the battle result in the defeat of the British-Egyptian arms, no power on earth can save the government from downfall, and nothing except his death can prevent the rise of Lord Randolph Churchill to a place far above that of his late ministerial colleagues.

Lord Sackville.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—A special to the World from London says: It is learned that Lord Sackville, who intends to pass the winter in the Riviera, will probably be appointed ambassador to Constantinople next spring, when Sir William White is going to retire on a pension. Lord Sackville's appointment, however, can only take place if the superior claims to the post of Sir Henry Drummond Wolfe are ignored.

MR. AND MRS. CLEVELAND.

Something Fairly Delicate Respecting Their Future Plans.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—A local paper says:

"Mrs. Cleveland says she is enjoying her stay here very much, as she always does. She is very fond of Philadelphia, and would like to make her home here after the close of the present administration. Indeed, there has been some serious consideration of that subject, but strong business reasons were advanced in favor of a residence by the president in or near New York.

"It is now quite decided that upon the expiration of his term the president and Mrs. Cleveland will reside at Orange, N. J., and Mr. Cleveland will have an important business occupation in New York. The president has been offered the management of several financial institutions in New York city, and it is understood that he has quite decided to accept one of them. He has also been tendered some law partnerships in New York, but it is said that he has decided not to return to the practice of law pure and simple."

Uxoricide and Suicide.

VALENTINE, Neb., Dec. 20.—Near Cain, in the central portion of this county, Tuesday, Stephen Mead shot his wife through the head with a revolver, causing instant death. He then shot himself several times with the same weapon, and then, securing a shotgun, discharged the contents under his chin, causing death in a short time. He had quarreled frequently with his wife, and she told him that she would leave him. The couple leave four small children.

Stripped Naked and Roasted.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—A Witchita, Kan., special says a young girl named Minnie Bartlett, living at Bross, in Kiowa county, Kansas, was stripped naked by a negro employed in the family, tied in the fireplace and then roasted to death. The negro, who has disappeared, thought the young girl had vowed her.

Watermelon Trust.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 20.—The melon growers of Barnwell and Aiken counties, who control 6,000 acres of melon land have organized a watermelon trust. Col. M. Brown has been elected president, and P. B. Hagedorn, secretary and treasurer. They expect to be able to limit the acreage, and regulate the prices of melons.

Three Persons Burned to Death.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Dec. 20.—Two children named Requa and their grandmother perished in the house of Martin Requa, three miles north of here, Tuesday night. The house was burned to the ground. Mr. Requa and his wife escaped, but were terribly burned.

Embezzler Gets Two Years.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—George Hartley, the cashier of Browning, King & Company, confessed to embezzling $3,000 from his employer in Judge Baker's court, and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, the lowest term fixed by law.

AGAINST ROME.

German Protestants Organize to Oppose the Mother Church.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The German Evangelical clergymen of this city and vicinity have formed a combination to oppose "the growing political power of the Catholic church." They will meet Friday afternoon and issue an appeal to non-Catholics. This appeal declares that the pope to-day has greater power than any other sovereign; that he menaces the United States; that in Boston the Catholics have control of the public schools, and that here in New York the influence of Archbishop Corrigan is dominant. It is declared that Catholics parcel out political offices and dictate the appointment in the schools, virtually disposing of the public money. It is further proclaimed that while millions are expended for the direct and indirect benefit of the Catholic churches the Evangelical churches are neglected, and that the Catholic church is an arch enemy, and it is held to be the duty of all Protestants to oppose it.
